

SOCIAL SCIENCES IN BRIEF

Social Sciences in Brief is an open access journal dedicated to the complexities of human behavior, social structures, cultural dynamics, and global challenges. It endeavors to facilitate interdisciplinary discourse and contribute to a more profound comprehension of society in its multifaceted forms and contexts.

SCOPE AND TOPICS:

- Social inequality and mobility
- Cultural and identity studies
- Environmental and societal interactions
- Education and social development
- Gender and intersectional studies
- Mental health and behavioral insights

EDITORIAL STANDARDS:

- ✕ Double-blind review
- ✕ COPE Core Practices compliance
- ✕ Indexed in Scopus, Crossref, EBSCO, Proquest
- ✕ Open access under a CC BY-NC-SA 4.0 license

Contact:

editorial@pro-metrics.org | <https://pro-metrics.org>

eISSN: 3059-5681

Language: English, Spanish, Portuguese

Frequency: Quarterly

APC: No APC

Publisher: Pro-Metrics